PART I: GENERAL

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1. Prior to 1 July 2006, the provisions dealing with medical assistance for public servants were contained in Part III of the Annexure to Resolution 3 of 1999 of the Public Service Co-ordinating Bargaining Council (PSCBC).
- 1.2. An agreement on medical assistance in the public service, PSCBC Resolution 1 of 2006, was concluded between the employer and organised labour in the PSCBC in 2006.
- 1.3. PSCBC Resolution 1 of 2006 seeks to give effect to the following principles:
 - 1.3.1. Ensure greater accessibility by providing affordable medical cover to all employees, especially lower-income earners;
 - 1.3.2. Promotion of enrolment of employees to the Government Employees Medical Scheme (GEMS);
 - 1.3.3. Ensure cost-effective medical cover for employees on GEMS over the long term;
 - 1.3.4. Efficient administration of the medical subsidy; and
 - 1.3.5. Recruitment and retention of professionals and employees with scarce skills.
- 1.4. The purpose of this Determination and Directive is to give effect to the relevant principles and clauses as contained in-
 - 1.4.1. PSCBC Resolution 1 of 2006 for in-service employees;
 - 1.4.2. PSCBC Resolutions 4 of 2010 read with PSCBC Resolution 2 of 2011 with regards to alignment of pre and post retirement medical assistance for employees on GEMS; and
 - 1.4.3. PSCBC Resolution 2 of 2015 for in-service employees on GEMS; and provisions dealing with the equalisation of post-retirement medical assistance for all qualifying former employees.

2. SCOPE OF APPLICATION

- 2.1 This Determination and Directive is applicable to employees appointed–
 - 2.1.1 on salary levels 1 to 10, in terms of the Public Service Act, 1994, (Proclamation No. 103 of 1994), as amended, and who fall within the registered scope of the PSCBC; and
 - 2.1.2 on fixed term contracts (salary level 1 to 10) for a period of six (6) months and longer, but excludes casual employees.

- 2.2. Post retirement medical assistance is applicable to qualifying former employees who exited the public service as a result of retirement, including early retirement, death or dismissal on account of incapacity due to ill- health or injury.

3. AUTHORISATION

This Determination and Directive is made by the Minister for the Public Service and Administration in terms of the provisions of section 3(5)(a) and 5(6)(b) respectively of the Public Service Act, 1994, as amended.

4. COMMENCEMENT

- 4.1. Unless otherwise stated, this Determination and Directive takes effect on 1 July 2006.
- 4.2. The Determination and Directive on post retirement medical assistance takes effect on 1 January 2015.

5. DEFINITIONS

Unless the context indicates otherwise, any word or expression to which a meaning has been assigned in the Public Service Act, 1994, as amended, bears that meaning, and -

5.1. “dependant” means-

5.1.1. the spouse or life partner, dependant children or other members of the registered employee’s immediate family in respect of whom the member is liable for family care and support; or

5.1.2. any other person who, under the rules of a medical scheme, is recognised as a dependant of a member;

5.2. “employer subsidy” or “medical assistance” is a monthly subsidy payable by the employer to the employee as a contribution to the employee’s membership fees to a medical scheme;

5.3. “GEMS” means the Government Employees Medical Scheme registered in terms of the Medical Schemes Act, 1998, Act No. 131 of 1998, (Medical Schemes Act) as amended;

5.4. “medical scheme” means a registered medical scheme in terms of the Medical Schemes Act;

5.5. “membership fees” means the total monthly contribution an employee must pay to obtain membership of a medical scheme;

5.6. “salary level 1, 2, 3, 4 or 5” means notch 1 of salary level 1 up to and including notch 12 of salary level 5 not covered by the Occupation Specific Dispensation (OSD).

5.7. “no worse-off” means that, subject to the member’s benefit option and member profile-

5.7.1 an employee shall not receive a subsidy less than the subsidy received at the previous medical scheme as at 30 June 2006; provided that the subsidy amount does not exceed the employee's total monthly contribution to GEMS;

5.7.2 a former employee shall not receive a post retirement medical subsidy less than the subsidy received at the previous medical scheme as at 31 December 2014; provided that such subsidy amount does not exceed the total monthly contribution to GEMS.

The provisions in Part I, paragraph 5.7, shall apply subject to the member's benefit option.

5.8. "service" for eligibility of the employer post retirement medical assistance refers to actual service and excludes service accumulated or obtained through purchase of service.

PART II: EMPLOYER MEDICAL ASSISTANCE FOR IN-SERVICE EMPLOYEES

1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 1.1. The employer shall assist an in-service employee by providing him/her with an employer subsidy as provided for in this Part. Only subscription fees as contained in the registered rules of the relevant medical scheme may be taken into account for subsidy purposes.
- 1.2. An in-service employee must be a principal member of a registered medical scheme to be eligible for the employer subsidy and may not belong to two medical schemes at the same time.

2. MEDICAL ASSISTANCE FOR EMPLOYEES ON MEDICAL SCHEMES OTHER THAN GEMS BEFORE 1 JULY 2006

- 2.1. An employee appointed in the public service before 1 July 2006 and who received the employer subsidy on 30 June 2006 in respect of a registered medical scheme other than GEMS shall continue to receive the employer subsidy of 2/3rd of the employee's membership fees subject to a maximum of R1 014-00 per month.
- 2.2. The employee shall not be eligible for the employer subsidy in terms of Part II, paragraph 2.1, if he/she terminates his/her membership of a registered medical scheme or if he/she becomes a dependant of his/her spouse's medical scheme.
- 2.3. An employee who transfers from one registered medical scheme other than GEMS to another registered medical scheme, will only retain his/her existing employer subsidy of 2/3rd of the employee's membership fees subject to a maximum of R1 014-00 per month, if the effective date of the transfer is immediately after the date of termination of the first-mentioned scheme.

3. MEDICAL ASSISTANCE FOR EMPLOYEES TRANSFERRING FROM OTHER MEDICAL SCHEMES TO GEMS

- 3.1. An employee who receives an employer subsidy on 30 June 2006 and at any date thereafter, and joins GEMS on or after 1 July 2006 is eligible for the employer subsidy of 75% of the employee's membership fees, limited to the maximum employer subsidy as indicated in Appendix 1.
- 3.2. If such an employee is on salary level 1, 2, 3, 4 or 5 and joins GEMS on the Tanzanite One Option, the employer shall pay 100% of the employee's membership fees, limited to the maximum employer subsidy as indicated in Appendix 1.
- 3.3. The amount of the employer subsidy referred to in Part II, paragraph 3.1, shall not-
 - 3.3.1. be less than the subsidy payable to the employee on 30 June 2006; and
 - 3.3.2. exceed the employee's membership fees to GEMS.

4. MEDICAL ASSISTANCE FOR EMPLOYEES NOT BELONGING TO A MEDICAL SCHEME ON 30 JUNE 2006

- 4.1. An employee not belonging to a medical scheme on 30 June 2006 must join GEMS on or after 1 July 2006 to be eligible for the employer subsidy, which shall be 75% of the employee's membership fees, limited to the maximum employer subsidy as indicated in Appendix 1.
- 4.2. If such an employee is on salary level 1, 2, 3, 4 or 5 and joins GEMS on the Tanzanite One Option, the employer shall pay 100% of the employee's membership fees, limited to the maximum employer subsidy as indicated in Appendix 1.
- 4.3. If such an employee joins any medical scheme other than GEMS he/she shall not be eligible for the employer subsidy unless he/she joins GEMS as a member.

5. MEDICAL ASSISTANCE FOR EMPLOYEES BELONGING TO GEMS ON 30 JUNE 2006

- 5.1. An employee belonging to GEMS on 30 June 2006, shall be eligible for the employer subsidy of 75% of the employee's membership fees, limited to the maximum employer subsidy as indicated in Appendix 1.
- 5.2. If such an employee is on salary level 1, 2, 3, 4 or 5 and belongs to GEMS on the Tanzanite One Option or changes to the Tanzanite One option on 30 June 2006, the employer shall pay 100% of the employee's membership fees, limited to the maximum employer subsidy as indicated in Appendix 1.
- 5.3. The amount of the employer subsidy referred to in Part II, paragraph 5.1, shall not -
 - 5.3.1. be less than the subsidy payable to the employee on 30 June 2006; and
 - 5.3.2. exceed the employee's membership fees on GEMS.

6. MEDICAL ASSISTANCE FOR NEWLY APPOINTED EMPLOYEES WITH EFFECT FROM 1 JULY 2006

- 6.1 The employer shall, with effect from 1 July 2006, pay to an employee appointed in the public service on or after 1 July 2006 and who joins GEMS, 75% of the employee's membership fees, limited to the maximum employer subsidy as indicated in Appendix 1.
- 6.2 If such employee is on salary level 1, 2, 3, 4 or 5 and joins GEMS on the Tanzanite One Option, the employer shall pay 100% of the employee's membership fees, limited to the maximum employer subsidy as indicated in Appendix 1
- 6.3 An employee who is appointed in the public service on or after 1 July 2006 and remains a member of an open medical scheme or joins a medical scheme other than GEMS on or after 1 July 2006, shall not receive the employer subsidy towards his/her membership fees.

7. MEDICAL ASSISTANCE FOR EMPLOYEES ON SALARY LEVEL 1, 2, 3, 4, OR 5 BELONGING TO OR JOINING GEMS ON THE TANZANITE ONE OPTION

The employer shall, with effect from 1 July 2006, pay to an employee on salary level 1, 2, 3, 4 or 5 who belongs to or joins GEMS on the Tanzanite One Option, 100% of the employee's membership fees, limited to the maximum employer subsidy as indicated in Appendix 1.

8. EMPLOYEES APPOINTED ON FIXED-TERM CONTRACTS

- 8.1. Employees on salary level 1 to 10 who are appointed on fixed-term contracts for more than six (6) months and do not receive 37% in lieu of benefits as provided for in PSCBC Resolution 1 of 2007 (herein referred to as a "fixed-term employee") qualify for an employer subsidy.
- 8.2. The employer shall pay to a fixed-term contract employee who-
 - 8.2.1. belongs to GEMS or joins GEMS on or after 1 July 2006, 75% of the employee's membership fees, limited to the maximum employer subsidy as indicated in Appendix 1; or
 - 8.2.2. is on salary level 1, 2, 3, 4 or 5 and belongs to or joins GEMS on or after 1 July 2006 on the Tanzanite One Option, 100% of the employee's membership fees, limited to the maximum employer subsidy as indicated in Appendix 1
- 8.3. A fixed-term contract employee appointed in the public service before 1 July 2006 and who receives the employer subsidy on 30 June 2006 in respect of a registered medical scheme other than GEMS, shall continue to receive the employer subsidy of 2/3rd of the employee's membership fees subject to a maximum of R1 014-00 per month.
- 8.4. If a health professional, who was appointed to perform community service on a fixed-term contract before 1 July 2006, joins the public service immediately after completing such service, he/she shall be eligible for the employer subsidy of 2/3rd of the employee's membership fees subject to a maximum of R1 014-00 per month if he/she was a member of a registered medical scheme other than GEMS immediately before he/she joined the public service and he/she chose to remain with such medical scheme.
- 8.5. A health professional referred to in Part II, paragraph 8.3, shall on joining GEMS, be eligible for the employer subsidy of 75% of the employee's membership fees subject to a maximum of R6 227-00 per month.

9. ADJUSTMENT OF MEDICAL ASSISTANCE FOR IN-SERVICE EMPLOYEES ON GEMS

- 9.1. The Minister shall adjust the medical subsidy for in-service employees on GEMS annually on the basis of the average Medical Price Index (MPI) of the preceding twelve (12) months ending in August of the current year for implementation with effect from 1st January of the following year.

10. TERMINATION OF GEMS MEMBERSHIP AND THE PAYMENT OF MEDICAL ASSISTANCE DURING UNPAID LEAVE

10.1 An employee who terminates his/her membership with GEMS on or after 1 July 2006 shall not be eligible for the employer subsidy, unless he/she re-joins GEMS as a member.

10.2 If an employee is on unpaid leave, his/her department shall continue to pay the monthly employer subsidy to the employee's registered medical scheme, provided that the employee continues to pay his/her monthly contribution in respect of his/her membership fees.

11. TRANSFER OF EMPLOYEES IN TERMS OF SECTION 197 OF LABOUR RELATIONS ACT

11.1 In the event that employees are transferred in terms of section 197 of Labour Relations Act (LRA) from a public service department to a State Owned Entity (SOE) and/or vice versa, GEMS makes provision for such transfers. An agreement entered into between the department and the public entity that makes provision for continuation of membership with GEMS should be concluded.

PART III: POST RETIREMENT MEDICAL ASSISTANCE (PRMA)

1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 1.1. The employer shall assist a former employee by providing him/her with an employer subsidy as provided for in this Part, subject to the conditions set out hereunder.
- 1.2. The former employee must be a principal member of a registered medical scheme to be eligible for the employer subsidy of 75% of the employee's membership fees, subject to a maximum of R3 248-00 per month, as indicated in Appendix 2. The full costs for any additional dependants shall be borne by the former employee.
- 1.3. In addition to the eligibility criteria set in Part III, 1.2 above, the employer shall provide medical assistance if an employee -
 - 1.3.1. exited or exits the public service as a result of retirement (including early retirement), death or dismissal on account of incapacity due to ill health or injury;
 - 1.3.2. has attained at least fifty (50) years of age;
 - 1.3.3. has at least fifteen (15) years of actual service; and
 - 1.3.4. remains a principal member of a registered medical scheme for twelve (12) months immediately before the date he/she exited or exits the public service.
- 1.4. If an employee or former employee mentioned in Part III, paragraph 1.3, who belongs to a registered medical scheme and receiving a subsidy dies and his/her spouse becomes a principal member of a registered medical scheme, the employer shall transfer the benefits provided for in Appendix 3 to the spouse.
- 1.5. If the spouse of the deceased remarries, his/her new spouse and dependants will not be eligible for the benefit transferred with effect from 1 January 2019. Only the spouse and the dependants who were beneficiaries of the deceased principal member at the time of his/her death will continue to benefit.

2. MEDICAL ASSISTANCE FOR FORMER EMPLOYEES BELONGING TO A REGISTERED MEDICAL SCHEME BEFORE AND OR 1 JANUARY 2015

- 2.1. All former employees who receive the employer subsidy as members of a registered medical scheme, shall with effect from 1 January 2015 be eligible for the employer subsidy of 75% of the former member's membership fees, limited to the maximum employer subsidy indicated in Appendix 2.
- 2.2. A former employee shall not be eligible for the employer subsidy in terms of Part III, paragraph 2.1, if he/she terminates his/her membership of a registered medical scheme, or if he/she becomes a dependant of his/her spouse's medical scheme.

- 2.3. All former employees who exited the public service on conditions stipulated in post retirement dispensations such as 2/6th, 3/6th, 4/6th and 5/6th and belonged to a registered medical scheme on 31 December 2014, shall be eligible, with effect from 1 January 2015, for the employer subsidy provided in Part III, paragraph 2.1.
- 2.4. In line with Part I, sub-paragraph 5.7.2, the amount of the employer subsidy shall not be less than the subsidy payable to the former employee on 31 December 2014, but not more than the former employee's total monthly contribution to any registered medical scheme.
- 2.5. The provisions in Part III, paragraph 2, shall apply to all eligible former employees with effect from 1 January 2015 and to eligible employees exiting the public service on or after 1 January 2015.
- 2.6 The provisions in Part III, paragraph 2, shall be the lesser of:
- 2.6.1 75% of the total monthly contribution to any registered medical scheme;
or
- 2.6.2 the maximum employer subsidy as indicated in Appendix 2

3. MEDICAL ASSISTANCE FOR FORMER EMPLOYEES ON SALARY LEVELS 1, 2, 3, 4 OR 5 BELONGING TO THE TANZANITE ONE OPTION OF GEMS

- 3.1. The employer shall, with effect from 1 January 2015, continue to pay a former employee on salary level 1, 2, 3, 4 or 5 who exited the public service and belonged to the Tanzanite One Option of GEMS, 100% of the medical subsidy, limited to the maximum employer subsidy indicated in Appendix 2.
- 3.2. The provisions in Part III, paragraphs 3.1 shall apply to all former employees on the Tanzanite One Option of GEMS who exited before 1 January 2015 and shall include employees exiting on or after 1 January 2015.
- 3.3 Members belonging to other medical schemes who retire on salary 1,2,3,4 or 5 and wish to access the 100% medical subsidy, referred to in paragraph 3.1 above, can join GEMS, provided they meet all the qualifying requirements. Any former GEMS member who retired on salary level 1,2,3,4 and 5 and wishes to access the 100% medical subsidy can also join the Tanzanite One Option, provided he/she meets all the requirements.

4. ADJUSTMENT OF MEDICAL ASSISTANCE FOR FORMER EMPLOYEES

- 4.1. The Minister shall adjust the medical subsidy for former employees on a registered medical scheme annually with the average Medical Price Index (MPI) of the preceding twelve (12) months ending in August of the current year for implementation with effect from 1st January of the following year.
